BLOOMINGTON LITTLE LEAGUE GIRLS MAKE IT TO THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

(San Bernardino, CA)

Fifth District Supervisor Josie praised the Bloomington Senior All-Stars girls Little League team today, during the Board of Supervisors meeting, for making it to the Division 3 playoffs where they played two championship games.

“These girls showed great sportsmanship and camaraderie as they played their games. They serve as role models for all our communities,” said Supervisor Gonzales.

Bloomington Senior All-Stars girls Little League team is made up of 15 and 16 year old girls. They played their championship games against the Pomona American team. The score of the second and final game was 8 to 7.

The Bloomington Senior All-Stars are coached and supervised by Jerry Mendoza, Gary Lee Mendoza and Paula Guzman.

“I’m very proud of the Bloomington Senior All-Stars and their accomplishment of making it into the championships,” added Supervisor Gonzales, who feels that Little League and organized sports activities are integral to the growth of our youth.
